

No updating: static sites are difficult and or impossible to update
No search function: users cannot search your site to find the content they are looking for Limited features: user login, forums, mailing lists, shopping cart, e-commerce catalogue and calendar features require custom code and are expensive to implement